

PLANNING WORKSHEET: Group 4 , Team A

Positions/Interests: Position(s) - the hard lines each side takes, which often make agreements impossible e.g. specific claims/terms identified in the case study while interest(s) is the underlying concerns, needs, fears, and desires that inform those position(s)

BATNA: Best Alternative to a Negotiated Agreement – Best alternatives/options to your team's positions/interests/goals

Bottom line(s): A bottom line or walk away signifies the worst possible outcome that you might accept or in other words the minimum offer/value that you could accept for your team.

Your Team's Position(s)/Interest(s) and BATNA	Your Team's Bottom Line(s)
Position(s): -Increase wages to $0.20 per hour for unskilled ditch diggers above last year's rate of $0.15 per hour -Reduce the workday from 10–12 hours to 9 hours per day (54-hour workweek) -Fair compensation for night work and Sunday work, extra pay $0.25 per hour -Safer and healthier working conditions -Fair treatment of workers with no blacklisting for complaints Interest(s): -Workers' wages are not enough to support a family, forcing wives and children to work -Long working hours cause fatigue, accidents, and poor health -Night and Sunday work is more dangerous and disruptive to family life -Desire for dignity, fairness, and recognition of laborers' contribution BATNA: -Laborers can seek work in other booming industries, as jobs outnumber unskilled workers -Public pressure and political advocacy through the Central Labor Union -Delaying cooperation or refusing overtime/night work	-Wage increase from $0.15/hour (no acceptance of last year's rate), minimum $0.18/hour -Maximum 10 hours workday, with strong preference for 9 hours -Extra pay or compensation for night and Sunday work, minimum $0.23/hour. If refuse to increase the pay, then reduce the working hours at night and on Sunday -Basic safety measures -If these are not met, we are prepared to walk away and seek alternatives

Other team's Possible Positions and Interests

Other Team's Position(s) and Interest(s) (BATNA)
Position(s): -Keep labor costs as low as possible -Maintain current wage levels or only a very small increase -Long working hours to finish the project before winter -Avoid setting a precedent that strengthens labor unions -Prioritize budget control over worker demands Interest(s): -Stay within the approved city budget -Avoid criticism from industrialists, council members, and taxpayers -Complete the sewer project efficiently and on time -Maintain authority and control over labor negotiations BATNA: -Hire non-union or replacement workers -Rely on Worcester's history of weak union enforcement -Use blacklisting or political pressure against labor organizers -Delay concessions knowing workers need income -Delay the project and resume later
